Water Conservation

This website has a limitations since it is an semi-online website

- Functions

You can use the link (URL) for accessing the website and also you can access it through local file that we've given to you. You can use an Internet or not, however there are some functions that needs an internet and there's not.

Example Online functions:

- Comments and Suggestions

The users needs to connect to the internet for sending there comments and suggestions through email/gmail.

Example Offline functions:

- Create Action Plan

The users can't use this feature online because we haven't bought a domain for this. As an alternative, you can use the local file which we have copied on your flash drive. TAKE NOTE: You have to provide laptops for users to access this feature.
